

The Do Not Call list is of critical importance to the privacy of citizens such as me in our own homes. I support this list and do not want its effectiveness to be diluted in any way.